

Press Release

The NAWC® Board of Directors Appoints Rosalyn Jordan as New Board Member

December 15, 2009

The National Alliance of Wound Care® (NAWC) is proud to announce Rosalyn S. Jordan, RN, BSN, MSc, CWOCN, WCC as a new addition to the Board of Directors. Ms. Jordan was elected to the board on September 10th at the annual NAWC Board Meeting held in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Ms. Jordan is the Executive Director of Clinical Education and Research at RecoverCare (formerly MedaSTAT USA), of 1920 Stanley Gault Parkway, Suite #100, Louisville KY 40223. She is responsible for the development of clinical training and educational programs for local, regional and national presentations, the management of clinical trials and clinical research studies and research literature reviews. She serves on various national committees including the National Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel.

She possesses extensive experience in wound care, having first received her CWOCN in 1993, and then going on to complete her Masters in Science in Wound Healing and Tissue Repair in at the University of Wales, UK in 2006, then finally receiving her WCC in 2009.

ABOUT NAWC

The non-profit, National Alliance of Wound Care is the largest group of certified wound care professionals in the United States. NAWC is among an elite group of more than 90 credentialing organizations who have received and maintained National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA) accreditation.